St. Louis Refining Works at Howard
Station Fell Victim to Flames—
Firemen Unable to Check Flames in One Portion.

The smelting works of the St. Louis Smelting and Refining Co., at Howard Station, caught fire at 2:15 this afternoon.

Soon after the fire companies reached the factory a second alarm was turned in. It was thought that the smelting works could not be saved.

From the location of the adjoining buildings it was thought that no others were in great danger.

The works is on Manchester avenue, near Macklin avenue.

The plant is a large one.

GRANT'S OFFICE ABOLISHED

Former General Superintendent and Three Clerks Leave the Transit Company.

At noon Friday the office of general superintendent of the Transit company, held by John Grant, was abolished and the duties of the office were assumed by the new general manager, Robert McCulloch.

Three clerks went out with Mr. Grant.

This action is in line with the exclusive privileges given the Post-Dispatch two weeks ago that Mr. Grant would soon sever his connection with the company.

Mr. Grant had been general superintendent for nearly three years. It came to

St. Louis soon after A. B. Du Pont was made vice-president and general manager.

GUARDS TALKED TOO MUCH

Publishers of Official Guide Complained That They Gave Too
Complete Information of Fair.

The Jefferson Guards have been noted not to talk much. As the time approached for the opening of the Fair, the military discipline is to be more rigidly enforced. The last effort at discipline came in a notice calling their attention to the general order reading:

"Officers will receive visitors with uniform courtesy and answer all questions as far as possible. No guard must allow him self to become engaged in extended conversation with men, but his position is to be maintained."

The complaints are that several of the guards have been interfering with the military discipline of the guides.

The publishers of the Official Guide Publishing Co. in giving to visitors the complete information of the Fair.

TO DO ALL THINGS SATURDAY BUT SNOW

Ugly, Squally Weather Is All Fore- caster Can See—Temperature Down to About Freezing.

There is a possibility of a freeze Friday night, and Saturday is to be a very ugly day. The wind will be brisk and high and will come from the North, where it has been snowing and freezing for two days. The best hope is the weather bureau could hold out for St. Louis that it would not snow.

The forecast is:

"Threatening Friday night and Saturday will be a very ugly day. The wind will be high and the temperature Friday night about freezing."

The unsatisfactory weather has been general. Throughout the Northwest, including Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, Kansas and Nebraska, there has been a freeze and snow in the most northern states.

The lowest temperature reported Friday was from White River, Ontario, where 4 above zero was registered.

The colder weather was general except in the Southwest and Pacific slope.

There have been no ideal days.

Mrs. Grossman sent the shoes to a Chicago store and very often saw people away articles of small cost. I never thought I was doing anything. What I took was mine. I was waiting for her across the street.

Grant's office sent to the Four Courts.

After questioning her nearly an hour,
Mrs. Grossman broke down and confessed that she had been guilty of taking things from several downtown stores, among them
Grand-Leader and Nugent's.

Washington—The fair prisoner begged the officers not to expose her.

Later the police arrested Cecilia Crothe, who is employed as a maid servant at the Grossman home.

It appears from her own statement that during the last two weeks Mrs. Grossman had been visiting various stores with the maid, who had bought different articles to carry away with her.

Friday noon Mrs. Grossman sent the shoes to a Chicago store to exchange a pair of shoes. Inquiry disclosed that the shoes had never been purchased there.

The next day the girl who gave the shoes to her Cecilia polled to Mrs. Gross-man, who was waiting for her across the street.

RESUMPTION OF TAX INQUIRY IS RECOMMENDED

House of Delegates Approves Report of Committee Appointed to Investigate Alleged Delinquencies in Payment of City Revenue.

ABOLITION OF THE LICENSE REVISION BOARD IS URGED

Committee Refused to Take Official Notice of Rent Increases—Only Firm Named in Report Is One Whose Head Resisted Inquiry.

At a special session of the House of Delegates Friday morning the report of the special committee appointed last October to investigate tax delinquents was received, and adopted.

The report contained a provision that the House reappoint a similar committee at the next session. It is probable that this committee will be appointed next week.

There was no opposition to the report, and it was not discussed.

The report did not mention the name of any firm except that of the J. H. Conrades Furniture Co., and it was mentioned as the only one which had been compelled to refuse to show the committee its books.

The report presented a series of figures derived from the examination of the books of 15 concerns. It groups them as follows:

"In nine (9) cases completed examinations of tools and machinery showed taxes paid to the license collector on $2,246. The actual value on same was ascertained to be $379,694.

"In nine (9) cases taxes were paid on other personal property assessed at $24,960.00. The actual value of this personal property was $3,616.00.

"Only one (1) bill we find 'money on hand' returned to the assessor for taxation. This amount was $100. The actual cash on hand at date of assessment was $300.00. These were the only concerns from whom we were able to obtain information on this part of the assessment."

Wide Variance Between Books.

The most striking thing, probably, in this portion of the report is a discrepancy of about $4,500.00 between the amount of the sales of these 15 concerns, as shown by the books of the license commissioner's office, and by their own books.

The committee's report did not mention what the city lost in taxes as a result of this, but Chairman Wiedmer, Delegate McCarthy and other members and attaches of the committee stated that it is about $80,000.

The committee explains that it based its report on the following: "15 firms being examined, we examined them thoroughly. It looked partially into the books of about 30 others."

The report recommends the abolition of the license revision "for the reason that the limited time in which such board may legally act is too short in which to properly supervise and correct license renewals."

Rent Increase Not Its Business.

The report says the committee's attention was called to the great advance in rents during the past year, showing the greatly enhanced value of St. Louis real estate. In many cases, it says, these rent advances equal or exceed 30 per cent and it has been suggested that the city should recommend corresponding advances in the assessment of real estate by the board of assessors. To such suggestions the committee replies that the committee's recommendations are not within the scope of the resolution whereby the committee was created.

In another part of the report the committee says that while the tax rate for others has been raised in recent years the rate for the city has remained at 20 cents per $100 ever since 1879 and that no part of the city's budget is increased, the city should recommend corresponding advances in the assessment of real estate by the board of assessors.

The committee's recommendations are not within the scope of the resolution whereby the committee was created.

The committee made an exhaustive inquiry into the actual sales of fifteen (15) concerns. These amounted to $40,224,151.00. The amount on which license tax was collected was $7,625. In other words, the amount of actual sales agree with the amount on which license tax was collected.

In eight (8) cases, completed examinations of taxes paid to the license collector on merchandise, raw materials and finished products amounted to $4,541,789. The actual value of these items was ascertained to be $8,008,925.

"In nine (9) cases completed examinations of tools and machinery showed taxes paid to the license collector on $2,246. The actual value on same was ascertained to be $379,694.

The report includes a table showing that the saloonkeepers pay more than twice as much taxes as the merchants and manufacturers of St. Louis, and that the banks and trust companies also pay more than the merchants and manufacturers. The table shows that for 1904 the merchants and manufacturers pay $531,667, the banks and trust companies $681,428 and the saloons $1,255,531.

The committee says it encountered difficulties in pursuing its investigations, but

LION TAMER RISKS LIFE IN SAVING MANIAC FROM WHEELS OF SWIFT TRAIN

CAPT. W. O. ADAMS

Thwarted in Effort to End His Life, Powerful Man Tears Gate From Its Hinges.

The lifting of Chris Pohl, who had determined upon ending his life in front of a fast passenger train, and throwing him to safety on the cinder path near the Wabash tracks, and then scambling to safety himself as the engineer made a desperate effort to stop the train, was the climax of a series of exciting incidents that were crowded into the half hour Capt. W. O. Adams guarded Pohl from death.

Capt. Adams is a lion tamer. He was formerly in the employ of a large show, and is now under contract for this summer.

During the winter he has been employed as Wabash agent at Luther station on Noland avenue, North St. Louis.

Thursday afternoon from his office window Capt. Adams saw Pohl, a giant in strength and stature, throw himself in front of the engine of a work train. Before he could reach the door the train had stopped, Pohl was dragged from the track, and was sent to hospital.

Pohl did not seek to gain his feet and Capt. Adams went to him. A very brief investigation convinced him that Pohl was being driven by a desire to end his life.

It was the work of a moment for Capt. Adams to reach him, but it required his full strength to hold him back from the engine.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS ON STAGE WITHOUT ATTACK OF STAGE FRIGHT

Seventy-Fifth Birthday of Oldest Woman but One in Profession Is Observed by Fellow Players.

In the window of a book shop on South Broadway is a play bill dated April 9, 1859, which announces the fact that "The Lady of Lyons" will be performed that night with Mrs. W. G. Jones as Claude Melotte, it being her first appearance here.

Fifty-four years later, lacking two days, we have this same Mrs. Jones with us. Just as she was in 1859, she is the mother of Pepita in "The Pretty Sister of Jones," now being played by Miss Adams.

Today Mrs. Jones celebrates her 75th birthday. She does not like the word "celebrate," but the day will take that character nevertheless, for there are packages waiting for her at the box office of the Olympic Theater which prove that her desire to have the day go by with as little notice as possible will not be heeded by her friends.

The day was a day of particular moment to Mrs. Jones, for she saw a part of "The Heart of Maryland," in which she has a niece whom she never saw on the stage before.

During Mrs. Jones' long career on the stage she has played many different parts, from children to old women, and even boys' and men's parts, including Romeo.

She says she has never suffered from stage fright.

Her first appearance, when she was 8 years old, was as the Duke of York in "Richard III" with Junius Brutus Booth at the Walnut Street Theater in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Jones has played opposite the brightest stars of the last half century, among them Wallack, Davenport and the Booths, father and son.

In 1851 she was in stock here in St. Louis for a year and a half at the Ludlow & Son theater, and again in 1854, at the time to divide the year between St. Louis and New Orleans.

Mrs. Jones' present husband was Benjamin Jones, leader of the orchestra at the Bowery Theater, where she played for fifteen years.

Mr. Jones was engaged as tenor in the Trinity Church choir, accepting the place on the understanding that he also lead a theatrical company.

The agreement was satisfactory, and Mrs. Jones tells with pride that for eight years after, on the orders of the rector of the church, the rector would stand as guard his music school class of young men to see the current performances at the Bowery Theater.

Miss Adams says she has played in as many as 22 plays in one week and in three different parts in one night.

Times are almost as busy with the new, while Mrs. Jones' night work is a hearing the part of Nanny Nannie in the "Little Minister," which play Miss Adams will resume week after next for her tour to the coast.

MYSTERY IN HIS DEATH

William G. Burke Suffered a Fractured Skull, Possibly Result of a Street Car Accident.

Mystery surrounds the death Friday morning of William G. Burke of 1321 St. Ange avenue. Death was caused by a fracture of the skull, received Thursday afternoon, but his family knows nothing of how he received the injury.

Mr. Burke, 35, says he has played in as many as 22 plays in one week and in three different parts in one night.

Times are almost as busy with the new, while Mrs. Jones' night work is a hearing the part of Nanny Nannie in the "Little Minister," which play Miss Adams will resume week after next for her tour to the coast.

A NOTED WOMAN.

COUSIN OF THE LATE U. S. PRESIDENT ZACHARY TAYLOR.

76 Years of Age, Recommends Vinol for Old People.

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom of 429 W. Erie st., Chicago, a member of one of the most distinguished families in the country, cousin of Zachary Taylor, 12th President of the U. S., and granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, writes:

"Vinol is a godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but I feel active and well today, thanks to the vitalizing effects of Vinol."

"My appetite is all that could be desired. I sleep well and my mind is clear, and I am interested in the affairs of life as I was 50 years ago."

"When I was young cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly gagged me to get it down. Vinol is so different, palatable and nourishing it impoverished blood."

"I feel so much stronger, both mentally and physically, since I used Vinol that I feel it my duty, as well as a pleasure, to recommend Vinol as the finest tonic I ever used in my life."

MRS. SARAH J. WINDROM.

Such words of praise from a person of such high standing must be accepted as unquestionable proof of the superiority of Vinol.

Do you wonder that our Vinol has such a strong hold upon the esteem of doctors and patients? We know of nothing else that will accomplish such wonderful results! and, remember, Vinol is not a patent medicine.

There are hundreds of old people in this vicinity who need just such a strength-maker and tissue-builder as Vinol. Their blood is thin and sluggish—Vinol will enrich and quicken the blood and build up the system. It is so much better than whiskey and strong tonics, which always have had a bad effect and weaken and bring down. There is nothing in the world so good for the weak, the aged or the run-down system and to cure a hanging on cold or hacking cough as Vinol, and it cause we know so well what it will do we are always ready to refund every cent paid us for it if it fails to do what we say. Try it on our guarantee. Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.

MOTHER-IN-LAW PREVENTS REUNION

Man Says Wife of Three Months Wishes to Return to Him, but Can't.

John Miller, a hotel keeper, applied in the St. Louis circuit court Friday morning for a writ of habeas corpus to restore to him his wife and her 7-year-old daughter.

John, who is said in the petition to be legally restrained by the petitioner's mother-in-law, Mrs. Annie Kneiper, at 300 North Broadway.

Miller says he was married three months ago, and that a week ago he and his wife quarreled and she went to her mother, staying with her the little girl, his step-daughter; that he and his wife now desire to be reunited, but the law prevents such reunion by restraining the wife and daughter against their consent.

Judge Sale will act upon the petition Friday afternoon.

RUSSIANS DENY PORT ARTHUR HAS BEEN BLOCKED

They Also Discredit the Claim of the Japanese That Their Torpedo Work Destroyed the Battleships Petrovsk and Pobieda.

REPORT THAT PAINTER
VERESTCHAGIN WAS DROWNED

The Famous Artist Was a Guest of Makaroff and Was on the Flagship When the Ship Went Down With All on Board.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15, 1:40 p.m.—The naval staff has no information confirming last night's rumor that the Japanese have succeeded in blocking the entrance of the harbor of Port Arthur.

Grand Duke Cyril is being brought back to Russia by command of the Emperor.

At the Vladimir palace the correspondent of the Associated Press was informed this morning of the receipt of a reassuring telegram from Lia Yang, where the grand duke has arrived with his brother Boris.

The admiralty authorizes the Associated Press to deny Vice-Admiral Togo's claim that the Japanese sank the Petropavlovsk in a fight of Port Arthur. The officials declare positively that there was no naval engagement, excepting the torpedo destroyer fight, either preceding or following the loss of the flagship.

A dispatch from Port Arthur, dated April 14, delayed in transmission, says:

An engagement occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday morning between Russian torpedo boats and the cruiser Bayan and Japanese warships. The torpedo boat destroyer Bezstrashni was sunk. Five of the torpedo boat destroyers, with the Bayan, returned to the harbor at 7 a.m.

The battleship Petropavlovsk, Admiral Makaroff's flagship, Pobieda and Peresvet and the torpedo gunboat Gaydamak then put to sea.

At 9:30 a.m. a terrific explosion occurred beneath the Petropavlovsk and the ship went down in two minutes. The Japanese squadron, consisting of about 20 ships, remained in sight until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

It was in the afternoon. The fighting between the opposing flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers lasted about an hour. The Bezstrashni lagged behind and became lost in the mist. When day broke he tried to creep in along the coast but was overtaken, cut off, overpowered and sunk, only to be lost in the darkness.

The cause of the catastrophe at Port Arthur are limited to two hypotheses—a submerged Russian mine or an explosion.

At 10:30 a.m. the ship was rushed into the hull of the ship and the water rushed in. The center of gravity having gone, the ship rolled on her side and sank. All information tends to prove that the mine was responsible for the destruction of Petropavlovsk.

The scene below will never be described. The remains of the squadron immediately after the explosion were scattered and the torpedo boats steamed as quickly as possible to the rescue of the survivors.

Lieut. Von Kober, Capt. Jakovlev, commanding the vessel, and two other officers were on watch examining the narrow entrance preparatory to entering it.

At about 8:30 o'clock there was a terrific explosion which followed a few seconds later by a detonation from the well-stored magazines.

The crew were then in the hull of the ship and the water rushed in. The center of gravity having gone, the ship rolled on her side and sank. All information tends to prove that the mine was responsible for the destruction of Petropavlovsk.

The scene below will never be described. The remains of the squadron immediately after the explosion were scattered and the torpedo boats steamed as quickly as possible to the rescue of the survivors.

Lieut. Von Kober was nothing short of miraculous. The force of the explosion sent Grand Duke Cyril flying across the deck of the ship. He fell to the bottom of an iron stanchion. Fortunately he did not lose consciousness. Believing that the ship would sink he crawled under the stanchion down its side and boldly plunged into the water. He succeeded in reaching a piece of wreckage, on which he lay. The grand duke was the last survivor to be picked up by a torpedo boat.

Lieut. Von Kober was also found swimming in the water. Capt. Jakovlev was thrown against a stanchion with such force that he was killed.

Captain Cyril's body was recovered.

He had been buried on the deck his legs were burned and he suffered a serious shock. He was taken immediately to a hospital in Port Arthur and his services were attended to. He will remain there for three days and will then be brought to St. Petersburg.

Vladimir, accompanied by a physician, started tonight for the far east. He will meet Grand Duke Cyril probably at Vladivostok.

The exact number of Vice-Admiral Makaroff's staff on board the Petropavlovsk when she sank is not known. It is thought by the admiralty to be probably 15 or 16. The exact number of the crew is also unknown. The Petropavlovsk had a complement of about 800 of whom 82 were saved at last accounts.

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful!—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's system, if it is painful something is wrong. It's better to practice to drown the pain, but remove the cause—perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb dislocations, or the development of a tumor. Whatever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special service, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and carelessness is the cause of most of the sufferings of women. I believe that if we properly understood the laws of health we would all be well, but if the sick women only knew the truth about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would be saved much suffering and would soon be cured.

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and only too pleased to endorse such a great remedy."—MISS JENNIE L. EDWARDS, 604 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

MISSIONARY'S MINE BELONGS TO CHURCH

Claim Staked While He Was Doing Field Work, Held Not His Property.

CHICAGO, April 15.—By the decision of the board of arbitration in the matter of title and proceeds of the placer mine No. 9, above "Anvil Creek," Cape Nome, Alaska, N. O. Hultberg, assignee for the Swedish Evangelical Mission Covenant of America, received from the White Star Mining Co. of Illinois; Dr. Claes W. Johnson and Peter H. Anderson the mining claim in dispute and proceeds to the amount of $263,688.

The arbitrators were Hiram T. Gilbert and A. M. Pence of Chicago, and David F. Lane of Berkeley, Cal. The award is signed by Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Lane. Mr. Pence dissenting from their opinion.

Peter H. Anderson, formerly a missionary from the Covenant at Chinook, Alaska, is directed to pay $1,000 immediately to Mr. Hultberg, the sum of $20,000, and the White Star Mining Co. of Illinois and Dr. Johnson are directed to surrender to Mr. Hultberg, the "No. 9" mines and the additional sum of $26,000, the net value of the output of the mine, held by the two parties to the White Star Mining Co. Minor awards of $500, $1,250 and $3,750 were made.

The unclaimed miners can graze 40 acres of Alaskan gold mine staked by Covenant missionaries in 1888. Mr. Hultberg staked the first claim for his society, and when he returned to the state, Mr. Anderson and others continued the work. They declared, however, that the miners were their property, and the mission society, which was holding to have the church organization appear as a litigant in court, private arbitration began secret on Feb. 20.

Two of the disputed claims were at one time owned by Eskimos, and the Indians and the presence of Chinese laborers and Constantine Upazuck, natives of Alaska. A number of other witnesses were brought to Chicago by the Alaskans.

The ownership of mine No. 9 was the only one passed upon by the arbitrators. Mr. Lane recites that "Anderson did not himself, directly or indirectly, make any contribution, either by way of money or otherwise, to the establishment of the claim in question. He never saw it until some time after the legal title to the claim had been established."

Counsel for Hultberg included N. Soderberg, a former judge of San Francisco; G. Quinn, Peoria, and H. F. Williams, Chicago. The defense was represented by Judge Chyratus.

BAN ON OPERA BY CHOIRS.

Episcopal Bishop of Chicago Wants Practice Stopped.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Dr. James S. Stone, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, has put a stop to the church choir's custom of giving operas, light or otherwise.

In religion and the theater do not mix well in my judgment and the theater do not mix well in my judgment," declared the rector. We do not have any objection to the members of the choir giving operas in private as individuals. I am, however, opposed to operas being given in the name of the church. I am of the opinion that the influence that surrounds the preparation and presentation of an opera is not good for the church.

It is understood that Bishop McLaren has informed the rectors of Episcopal churches generally that he will be less inclined to permit an opera to be given in the name of the church.

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality.

HER BABIES' PRATTLE TORTURED HER

Run Down, Sick, Moody, Irritable—This Burdened Mother "Often Wished She Had No Children"—But Today She Is Bright, Strong, Cheery, Well, Quickly Braced—Invigorated and Cured by the Celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

In hundreds of homes there is presented this same bitter spectacle, the mother who feels no joy in having her children about her, whose quivering nerves wince at the happy chatter, as if from the sting of a whip.

Too many a disengaged woman, or man, has recourse to the coffee pot—or to a still more insidious stimulant—and the result is nervous and physical wreck, and a sad-dened home.

This aged, nerve-wracked mother—Mrs. A. P. Eller—was wise enough to build up her system and her nerve forces quickly instead of taking a stimulant like coffee to burn them up. She writes:

"I am the mother of a large family, and household duties completely wore me out. I became nervous and run down and had no appetite. I was so nervous that my children's talk, which always amused me, became a source of irritation.

TOOTHPICK CAUSE OF DEATH.

Cancer of Tongue Was Caused by Continued Irritation.

The habit of holding a toothpick in the mouth is blamed for a fatal attack of the tongue resulting in the death of Adolph Weymann, aged 47, which occurred Thursday afternoon after an illness of two years.

Mr. Weymann was born in Ossenbach, Germany, and came to America in 1870. He was vice-president of the Flohr-Walter Candy Co., later the A. J. Walter Candy Co., until that concern was absorbed by the trust.

He is survived by his widow, Miss Williamine Weymann, and their children, Otto, Walter, Leo, Carl and Paula Weymann. The funeral was held Friday.

JENKINS LIKELY TO LOSE STATE JOB

Gov. Dockery Is Said to Have Prepared Letter Requesting Political Leader's Resignation.

O'BRIEN TRAGEDY THE CAUSE

Unless He Is Removed, Folk Men May Oppose Governor's Election as Delegate.

As a result of the O'Brien tragedy and of the primary riot at Clayton two months ago, Gov. Dockery is said to have prepared his letter to Jenkins, who will be asked to retire at once.

Jenkins was appointed to the board of arbitration two years ago, soon after the law authorizing this body to settle strikes was passed by the legislature.

He receives $5 a day during the sessions of the board.

In the fight between the Folk and Hawes forces at Clayton Jenkins took a conservative stand, and on the day the convention was called, Jenkins directed the operations of a large number of men who surged into the place. The Folk delegation was then seated and voted generally.

Charles O'Brien, editor of the American Celt, who died Tuesday from a skull fracture, was an adherent of Jenkins.

It is charged that he was assaulted in "Snake" Kinney's saloon on Ninth street.

After the riot, O'Brien, who had been in the jaw, and he exhibits a bruised and swollen face as evidence of the alleged attack.

Folk supporters say that the discharge of Jenkins will be a necessary preliminary to their indorsements of Gov. Dockery as a delegate at the Democratic national convention.

JENKINS DENIES ASSAULT;

O'BRIEN INQUEST CONTINUED.

The absence of a juror, D. P. McCarthy, and the necessity for Coronet Funkhouser appearing as a witness at the trial of former Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue, James J. O'Brien, in the coroner's office, on charges of larceny, combined to cause a continuance Friday morning.

James J. O'Brien, editor of the American Celt and a Folk adherent, who died Tuesday at the Lutheran Hospital from injuries which he received in the primary riot at Clayton's saloon. The inquest will be resumed Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Thomas M. Jenkins, namesake of O'Brien, as his son, and the blow which caused O'Brien's death, and "Kid" Sheridan and Kinney, witnesses of the alleged assault, appeared before the coroner's jury Friday morning, ready to testify. These men did not appear at the beginning of the inquest Thursday, and officers reported that they could not be found.

They said Friday morning, however, that they were at their places of business for the greater part of Thursday, and that they did not appear as witnesses because they had not been subpoenaed.

Jenkins, Friday morning, made a statement to the coroner's inquest in which he denied that he, Kinney or Sheridan had been in any way involved in causing the injuries which led to O'Brien's death.

"I have nothing to do with it and don't propose to talk at any length now," he said. "But I will say this much: It will be shown that I am not responsible. I did not strike O'Brien, but that neither I, Kinney or Sheridan had anything to do with him."

"O'Brien was not in any fight in Kinney's saloon, and none of us injured him in any way."

O'Brien's story was that, Thursday night right after supper, he was in Kinney's saloon and got into an argument with Jenkins and Kinney and Sheridan over the candidates of Hawes and Folk. O'Brien maintained that he, Jenkins and Sheridan had grown heated, and Jenkins struck him once in the mouth and once on the jaw. Kinney, he said, then intervened to prevent Jenkins from striking him again.

O'Brien died, according to the showing of the autopsy, either from a fracture of the skull or from a hemorrhage of the brain, which, it is supposed, was caused by the blow on his jaw.

JUBILEE AT SYRIAN CHURCH.

English Sermon Will Be Preached at Chapel Anniversary.

High mass in the Syrian, or Chaldean, rite will be sung by Rev. Matthew Noemi and a sermon in English will be preached by Rev. Father J. J. Head of Annunciation Church at the celebration of the third anniversary of the Syrian Chapel, 617 South Broadway, next Sunday morning.

Archbishop Prendergast will be present, if he returns from the East in time. The chapel is one of the few churches in the country where the services are conducted in the Syrian tongue. The congregation now numbers about four hundred, and Father Noemi, who is a native of Nazareth, Palestine, contemplates building a church after the World's Fair.

STORY OF A TIRED-OUT MINISTER

OWE YOU my heartfelt gratitude," said a minister to one of our representatives recently, "for insisting on my trying a bottle of Rexall Mucu-Tone. You know I am not at all addicted to the medicine habit, and I was rather skeptical of the merits of Mucu-Tone. Still, you urged me, and I could see no harm in trying it. Since then I have used three bottles, and have recommended it to I don't know how many people."

"I am convinced that you were right when you told me that I had some kind of catarrh—of the kidneys, I judge, from the terrible backache I experienced, yet I had supposed that catarrh was a disease of the nose and head only. I have read the Mucu-Tone booklet, however, and I can now understand how catarrh attacks any part of the mucous membrane."

"Rexall Mucu-Tone is wonderful. I am using it three times a day, and have not felt so well in years. It is giving me strength, and I believe I am adding some flesh."

How many churchgoers realize the strain under which their pastor labors?

How many appreciate the fatigue that follows his Sunday work? The nerve-racking, brain-wearing duties that endure from week's end to week's end, from the beginning of the year to the close, and from one year to another?

But this cannot go on forever. Sooner or later a minister so pressed feels his energies waning. After a while there is a break-down—a physical and mental collapse. If he could only get out into the country for a month or two of absolute rest, but—why suggest such an impossible thing! We know that no minister can spare the time for this. Neither can any other business or professional man. The next best thing is to replenish the waning vitality by artificial means—to help Nature in her efforts to supply energy and nerve power.

Our new remedy, Rexall Mucu-Tone, does this.

Physical and mental exhaustion is due to a catarrhal congestion of the mucous membranes. Rexall Mucu-Tone cures it by cleansing these membranes, driving out the poisons and allaying the inflammation. It also revitalizes the blood, steadies the fagged nerves and builds up the body.

We ask you who are weak, nervous and in need of new energy to give Mucu-Tone a trial. Then if you are not more than satisfied we will give you back your money.

Large bottle, 89 cents. Sold only at our store.

$25,000 FOR BEING HUGGED ON TRAIN

Woman Gets Damages From Railroad for Insults From Persons Still Unidentified.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 15.—Unless the state supreme court shall rule otherwise, the Southern Railway will be forced to pay $25,000 to Mrs. Sumie Franklin of Newberry, the state, who received that verdict when sued for damages at the hands of men at present unknown.

After a hearing at Greenville, Judge W. L. Smith, of the state supreme court, announced that he would not grant a new trial nor would he reduce the verdict to a smaller amount, the most remarkable damage suit ever tried in South Carolina. Franklin asserted that some men on the Southern train to Greenville two men hugged her and talked indecently to her, causing mental and physical pain.

For the alleged hugs and insults she wanted $50,000.

The conductor interfered as soon as the woman complained to him.

ZIONISTS MAY GO TO UGANDA

"Everything Arranged Satisfactorily," Says a Messenger From Promoter of Colonization Plan.

LONDON, April 15.—A private telegram received by a leading Zionist of London today from an English member of Zionist action committee at Vienna says:

"Everything arranged satisfactorily."

This refers to the question of a Zionist settlement in Uganda, East Africa.

The proposal was made at the international congress in Basil, Switzerland, Aug. 23 last, the presiding professor, Dr. Herzl, of the rectorate to the college of professors referring to the colonies of Great Britain on the Suez Canal.

It was agreed that Great Britain had offered the Zionist a large tract of territory to be held by the Jews, who would have an autonomous government under the suzerainty of Great Britain.

The proposal referred the question to an action committee.

REVIEW OF MERCANTILE TRADE.

Unseasonable Weather Restricts Business in South and West.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Special dispatches to the International Mercantile Agency report a continuance of favorable trade conditions in most centers of commerce, but a general depression still restricting business in certain parts of the South and West. This has been specially noticeable in wholesale dry goods, where the movement has been delayed, although the sales in general average up to last week, and in some cases exceed them.

While seedling throughout the Northwest has been retarded by late spring, the season is not sufficiently far advanced to warrant definite predictions concerning crop prospects. The St. Paul district reports a fairly good outlook, and the market prospects are good prospects as soon as good weather permits the farmer to go on with his work.

Collections in New York and elsewhere are still very slow, especially where the peculiar vicissitudes.

Imports in general have been thoroughly sustained. Pittsburgh district reports volume of business likely to equal past year's record. Consumptive demand is alone governing the market.

DR. AMES IS ARRESTED AGAIN.

New Bribery Charge Against Him, With New Witnesses.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 15.—Albert A. Ames, former mayor of Minneapolis, was arrested this afternoon on an indictment returned yesterday for accepting a bribe Dec. 15, 1901, from Boss Lee.

The indictment is like the others upon which he was first arraigned, but features this one in that the new witnesses are not depended upon. In the indictment appears the name of Lilly T. Ames, wife of Col. Fred Ames; Joseph Cohen, Frank Brown, and two women. Dr. Ames pleaded not guilty and his case was set for trial May 2.

COL. MARCHAND IN PERIL.

French War Office Threatens Punishment for His Charges.

ARCACHON, France, April 15.—Gen. Andre, minister of war, on learning from an interviewer of the publication by Col. Marchand, the hero of the Fashoda affair, of an open letter concerning his resignation, has issued a decree in which he declared that he has been slandered and that the attack from military ostracism, expressed skepticism as to the authenticity of the letter, added.

"Should the letter prove to be genuine there can be no question not only of Col. Marchand's resignation, but of the severe punishment which awaits him."

FARMERS' TRUST ORGANIZES.

Incorporation Papers State That Its Capital Is $50,000,000.

PIERRE, S. D., April 15.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state for the National Farmers' Exchange, with South Dakota headquarters at Pierre, and offices in Chicago, and a capital of $50,000,000.

This corporation has for its purpose co-operation in the handling of all products of the farms, or in other words a "farmers' trust."

The incorporators are: W. N. Gaines, Topeka; Payne, Hamlin, Jo.; J. P. Van Patten, Patten, Ill.; T. A. G. Stephens and W. J. Blinford, Pierre, S. D.

BURR INDICTMENT FOUND.

Original, Long Supposed to Be Lost, Coming to Fair.

RICHMOND, Va., April 14.—The original indictment of Aaron Burr for treason was found today in the archives of the federal courts here. It was long supposed to have been lost.

It was found by John Ramey of Roanoke, foreman of the jury. It is to go on with other papers in the Aaron Burr trial, for an exhibit of the government at the St. Louis Exposition.

Kansas College Alumni Banquet.

At the first annual dinner of the St. Louis branch of the Alumni Association of St. Louis, Kansas College, given Thursday night at the St. Louis Hotel, the following were present: S. J. Harbaugh, J. Dowling, R. A. Lewis, J. P. Ryan, D. Jones, J. A. Constance, J. F. Lynch, J. P. McNamee, W. B. Plunkett, J. F. Gallagher, A. Holder, P. B. Casper, W. F. Lightfoot, W. Clarkson, Ed. Dailey, J. This is because the wise housewife knows that one pound of C-N saves a pound of doctor's bills.

This thing of keeping well isn't really difficult. It is just a little balsamic-colored fluid with a pleasant odor which is perfectly harmless to use and a perfect wonder at destroying germ life and insects. Put it in every hole of your house and let it do its work. The C-N helps the soap to do the cleaning and kills everything in the shape of germs or insects.

There is no thorough cleanliness without the use of C-N. It is an aid to, not a substitute for, cleanliness.

Some people are afraid to use C-N on paint or on furniture, but it is safe and gives absolute safety from cells to garret. Put a little in water and sponge it on the carpet, and it will remove dirt and preserve them from moths and carpet bugs.

One of the best things about C-N is that it's no trouble to use. Just add a few drops of water used for cleaning. You would do the cleaning anyhow. The sweeping and mopping are simple and easy to do.

Asclepius is a positive and permanent cure of catarrh.

Judge & Dolph Offer to Return Money If Hyomei Treatment Fails to Cure Catarrh Without Stomach Dosing.

If for a few minutes four times a day you breathe Hyomei, all catarrhal germs will be destroyed and the irritated mucous membrane restored to health.

With every Hyomei outfit there is a neat inhaler which can be carried in the purse or pocket. Hyomei breathed through this contains the same healing balsams that are found in the air passing over the mountains, where catarrh is unknown.

It destroys all catarrhal germs in the air passing over the head, throat and nose, and makes a positive and permanent cure of catarrh.

Ask Judge & Dolph, 515 Olive street, to show you a Hyomei outfit and explain to you what a simple and easy way it is to relieve and cure your catarrhal troubles.

At the Post-Dispatch Counting Room or leave your order at any drug store.

QUESTION RIGHTS AS TO "COTTAGE"

Mayor Wells Receives Protests Against Hospital Plans and Attorneys Show Legal Objections.

Mayor Wells received numerous protests over the telephone Friday morning from citizens who object to any summary action being taken to turn "The Cottage" in Forest Park into a hospital for the World's Fair. The burden of most of the protests is that the matter should come before the municipal assembly for action, so that dissenters may change its purpose.

BOER VETERANS ATTEND THE KINLOCH RACES.

All the Boer veterans who are here for the World's Fair this morning formally accepted the invitation of President to attend the opening of the Kinloch race meeting at the Fair Grounds this afternoon at the Battery A Armory on Grand avenue, near Chouteau, at 1:30 p.m. This afternoon, and marched in a body across Grand avenue to the Fair Grounds.

FILLEY CLUBS ARE GAINING STRENGTH

St. Louis Hamilton Club Leaders Object to Platitudes of Former Boss.

HE IS "AGIN" WALBRIDGE

Kerens Men, Notably John B. Owen, Trying to Re-Eliminate Sage of the Mosque.

In moving to secure control of the local Republican organization Chauncey I. Filley has run against several snags and is now at war with John B. Owen, the Sixth ward leader.

It appears that Filley's plan to restore Republican rule consists of organizing "good government" clubs in every ward. In the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and one or two West, End wards he has corralled a membership of more than 1000.

Filley does not admit that he ever bolted the Republican party, but says the party bolted him.

His petitions, now being circulated, declare that "boodlers and grafters" are trying to get hold of the political reins and he is willing to lead the reform hosts to victory.

Among those who object to the language of "Old Man" is Committeeeman Owen. Owen is not edified by Filley's platitudinous discourses on political morality, and he has so informed Filley.

But Filley simply laughs at Owen and tells him that the Republicans of the Sixth ward will get his scalp before the campaign has progressed much further. Owen is a Kerean man.

The meeting of the Republican City Central Committee with the St. Louis Hamilton Club Thursday night is of much significance, so far as Mr. Filley is concerned.

It is understood to be the purpose of the Hamilton Club to squelch the "Old Man," and they figure the best way to do the work is through the city committee.

A majority of the city committees are favorable to Filley and a few weeks ago they were willing to let him in on the ground floor. Now, however, he is out. Filley has simply chosen to flirt with the "boys" but meantime he is effecting a strong organization among the good government clubs.

Republicans who have watched recent events say under no circumstances would Filley be likely to make peace with the Hamilton Club.

Moreover, he does not take kindly to some of the men who are being put forward as prospective candidates on the Republican ticket.

It is well known that he despises ex-Mayor James E. Watson, making no play for the gubernatorial nomination under the guise of a vice-presidential boom. Not so long ago he got much sleep over Representative Bothwell of St. Louis.

According to his friends Filley will attend the Republican state convention, having arranged to be a proxy in his district. In that event there may be lively discussions at the convention.

The Patagonian giants reached the World's Fair grounds Thursday morning.

The party consists of two men, two women and one child. It is in charge of Vicente Cane, a Peruvian who has lived among the Tehuelches, the tribe from which these giants were recruited.

The most striking member of the party is the King of the Tehuelches, whose name sounds something like Groom. He is a veritable giant, with a great, Ajaxian frame and a massive face.

The King and all four of the men of his tribe are over six feet tall. The two women are five feet and seven inches tall. They are much the largest people on the Fair grounds, and much the most primitive. They appear to be savages, their clothes are blankets made from the skins of animals, the camel-like creature which roams the plains of Patagonia in great herds, and which supplies the Indians with almost all their food and clothing.

King Groom and his people were given a fine reception, quite befitting the big savage's rank. They were met at the Union Station, with a dinner, a speech and a trip to the Fair grounds in style.

They are copper-colored people, much like the Indians, and their features so rugged that they are more like statutory than animal beings.

Given the title of a real king of his kind, it might easily be taken for the shield which was sighted now and then by the people who have been here for hundreds of years.

None of the Tehuelches can speak anything but their own guttural tongue, which may be heard in a sound to a steamboat whistle with consumption.

Inasmuch as the Peruvians who brought them to the Fair have no information, the party's trip from South America was rather a slim harvest when the giants appeared.

The Tehuelches opened their eyes something like a foot when they saw the Fair buildings. They seemed inclined to run, but then stuck to their seats. They were the pictures of home-sickness.

They will build their native huts or toll houses, and will live in them, and guanaco hides stretched over stock frames. Until they begin this work they will be quartered alongside the little hairy Ainus, who recently arrived from Japan.

New Double Daily Through Sleeping Cars Between St. Louis and Denver via Missouri Pacific Railway.

Society of Pedagogy Election.

The annual election of the St. Louis Society of Pedagogy will be held Saturday morning at the Central High School. The candidates for president are William Schuyler, assistant principal of the McKinley High School; L. E. Bell, principal of the Emerson School. Other nominees are: For vice-president, John S. Collins; treasurer, J. J. Smith; secretary, Clara M. Jones; official reporter, Philo T. Stevenson; member executive committee, Mary J. Brady.

NAVAL OFFICERS THE GUESTS OF FAIR

Men of Nashville and Lawrence Will Be Met by R. Diaz-Albertini in Launch.

MANY TOWNS DISAPPOINTED

Gunboat and Torpedo Boat Destroyer Making No Day Stops in Their Hurried Trip.

World's Fair officials have begun to receive telegraphic reports of the progress of the gunboat Nashville and the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence, now on their way up the Mississippi river to participate in the opening of the World's Fair, April 30.

R. Diaz-Albertini, secretary of the reception committee of the Fair, says plans are in preparation for the reception and entertainment of the officers and crews upon their arrival. He will go down the river in a launch as the vessels near St. Louis and welcome them in the name of President Francis and the Exposition company.

"As representatives of the United States navy, the ships and their men will be the guests of the Exposition," said Mr. Albertini. "Upon their arrival here I shall probably escort the officers to the Administration building, where they will meet President Francis and other officials of the Fair."

"Further plans for their entertainment are under way, fitting the importance of the visit of the vessels. Just who these are we shall probably know in a few days."

Matches say the ships have passed Greenville, Miss., racing up the river at high speed, to the disappointment of interested citizens of that city, who expected them to follow the precedent set by former naval visitors and stop along the way.

The ships should reach St. Louis, it is said, April 26 or earlier.

Harbor Commissioner Whyte has chosen an anchorage for the Nashville and Lawrence at the mouth of the river, where the Illinois shore, where the channel is sufficiently deep and the bottom stable.

Mr. Whyte has been informed that while the gunboat and destroyer were not invited to come here by the city officially still, as the city's guests, they were welcomed as the official. They will be a party of city officials, who would probably go down the river to meet and escort them to their anchorage.

UNION CASTS OUT BANDMASTER WEIL

Importation of Musicians and Violation of Exposition Wage Scale Are Charged.

Unless matters are satisfactorily adjusted at Friday's session of the Musicians' Mutual Benefit Association, William Weil, official World's Fair bandmaster, will be expected to leave the association, and through his inability to employ union musicians in good standing, will possibly forfeit his contract with the World's Fair.

Bandmaster Weil, as told in late editions of the Post, has engaged with having imported outside musicians to make up his instrumentation of 45 musicians for the Fair, music bureau, and Friday morning the wage scale was raised.

It was thought necessary to insert the additional clause that union musicians should be employed, as the union strength was such that the business men did not think Mr. Weil would attempt to do otherwise.

The compensation is not made public, but was based on a band of 45 men at the minimum salary stated.

Presents Portrait to Society.

Mrs. John Doniphian of St. Joseph, Mo., has presented to the Missouri Historical Society, the regular monthly meeting of which will be held in the Missouri Hall of the Sacramento during the Mexican war.

John P. Purdy, made the presentation address.

Maj. Clark Kennerly and E. J. Glasgow, Mexican war veterans and personal acquaintances of Mrs. Doniphian, were present at the meeting.

Street Car Victim Is Dead.

William O'Hearn, 21-year-old streetcar boy, whose skull was fractured Tuesday morning when he stepped off one street car in front of another, died at the Hospital Friday morning. O'Hearn's skull was fractured.

Subscribers to the convention fund are to be given single admission coupons, according to amount contributed, as follows:

Five dollars to $5. one; $15 to $25, two.

$25 to $50, four; $50 or more, six coupons.

A few tickets will be reserved for distinguished state and foreign officials who may be visiting the city at the time.

The chairman of the finance committee will be C. H. Huntington, president of the Business Men's League; W. M. McLean, chairman of the musical Union.

F. R. Kroeger, assistant manager of the World's Fair music bureau, and Friday morning the wage scale was raised.

A PAPER SOLD EVERY DAY FOR EVERY HOME IN THE CITY.

Justice would make a pulp of the Paper Trust.

The Kaiser wears everybody with his incessant talking. What if the Kaiser and the President were to meet?

The coal found in Alaska is "almost equal to anthracite." Doubtless it will soon pass into the hands of "agents of Providence."

A forecast of the House Investigating Committee says Bristol will be censured. But the men he censured—innocent and guilty—will be washed white as snow.

The voting machine used so successfully in Chicago and Milwaukee cannot be squared with the political machine. It cannot be stopped, and it does its own counting.

If the foreigners don't see plenty of babies at the World's Fair they will begin to think there may have been something in the Roosevelt scare about racial suicide.

THE PAPER TRUST.

"In his testimony before the House judiciary committee Mr. C. W. Lyman, vice-president of the Paper Trust, admitted that his company represented to the Ways and Means Committee that the Dingley bill was under consideration, that if the industry were protected a combination would be formed which would cheapen the price of paper.

But instead, the price was raised. Explaining, Mr. Lyman makes this remarkable statement: "We did not anticipate the boom in business and the conditions which have increased the cost of producing paper."

In other words, they did not anticipate an opportunity to raise prices. They got all the advantages in the way of tariff protection a benevolent government would give, and then combined to get the further advantage of "economies." That is to say, with the help of the government they obtained a monopoly, and really, they didn't think business would ever be so good that they would be tempted to charge monopoly prices.

The trust got the government to go into partnership with it by granting an exclusive market in the United States, but the vice-president of the combine refuses to divulge the facts respecting Canadian paper. That is "private business." If the affairs of the trust are "none of the public's business," then let the trust surrender the advantages of the government partnership. Is not a partner entitled to all the facts of the partnership?

The trust sells paper abroad cheaper than at home. Mr. Lyman refuses to tell why.

But the question presses—why? and it must be answered.

The great losses of the American Duchess of Roxburghe and the great winnings of the American promoter, Col. E. H. Power of Mississippi, are equally discreditable to this country. Gambling is bad enough, but when the example of gambling is made conspicuous we may well be ashamed of our countrymen and countrywoman abroad.

SUSPENDING THE RULES.

The suspension of the civil service rules to enable candidates to enter the service or obtain promotion without examination makes of the merit system a convenient instrument for political trading.

It is very strange that Mr. Roosevelt, a pioneer civil service reformer and a stout advocate of the merit system, should himself be the greatest offender in this respect.

The operation of the rules is very easily traced. When an appointment is inconvenient or undesirable the President can refer the candidate to the Board of Examiners where he takes his chances with other candidates. The rules are pleaded and no office seeker can complain if he is made to conform to them.

But when a place is wanted for a person whose only claim is partisan political service and who "must be taken care of," what so easy as to suspend the rules and let him in?

The practice is vicious and in the light of his record Mr. Roosevelt should be the last man to indulge it.

Mr. Root is a great lawyer, and it may be conceded that he is a great man, but he is not of the judicial temperament. His aspirations to the presidency will be approved and encouraged by a vast number of American citizens, but the proposal to make him chief justice will be coldly received.

THE POSTAL INQUIRY.

The President is said to think that the investigation of the postal department by the postoffice officials was sufficient, but he will not oppose a congressional inquiry.

The notion that an inquiry conducted by persons interested in the result or who may be implicated in the abuses is "sufficient," is no doubt attractive to a candidate seeking re-election but to impartial observers is full of fun and humor.

Mr. Payne's administration of the department has been peculiarly unfortunate. The postoffice, which is the great business department of the government, is also the great political department and Mr. Payne is notoriously a better politician than a business man. If scandals have arisen it is only because of an illogical attempt to mix things different; business and politics will mingle no better than oil and water.

A thorough and searching investigation is called for by the conditions, and it should be conducted by a committee of one or both Houses.

The vice-president of the Paper Trust does not advise the removal of the tariff on wood pulp and paper. It cannot leave its mother.

WISHING AND WORKING.

"Civic Pride," a new and bright little magazine devoted to municipal progress, observes that "the man who turns the whole work of civic improvement over to his neighbors is twin brother to the man who thinks that because the world owes him a living, he does not have to work."

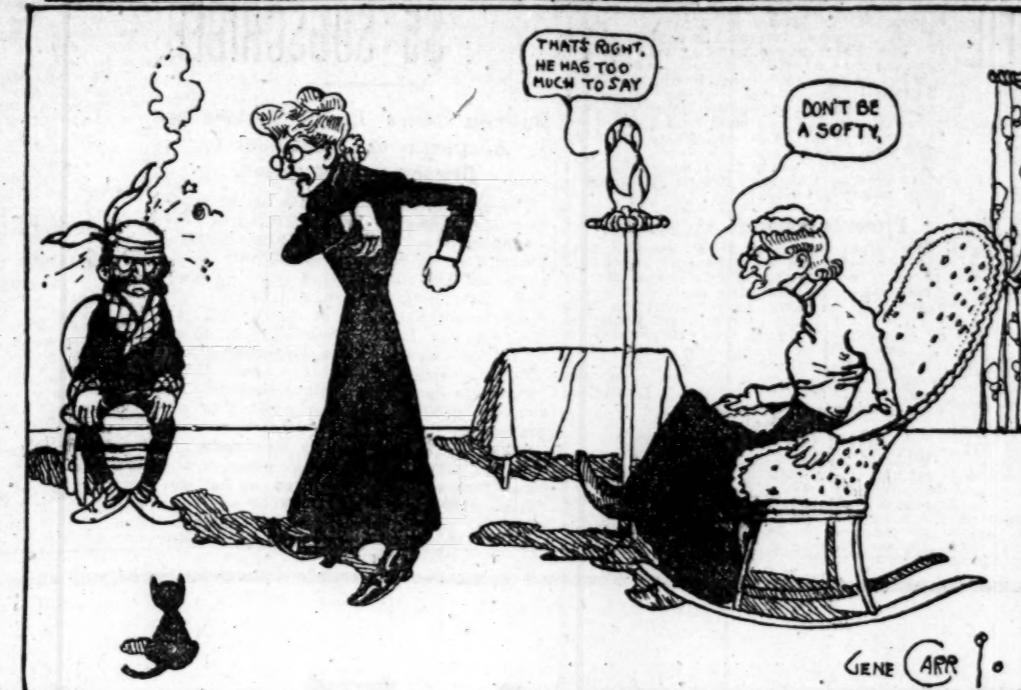

Exactly; and because this same man has twins without number, civic improvement lags and cities fall into the hands of men who steal the living the world owes to every man. The world does not pay its debt to men who do not work for it. There is no collecting agency on earth which can set aside this rule.

Municipal improvement which benefits all should be the result of the work of all. If justice were done the twins would get no share of it.

Wishing for municipal progress while letting the other man work for it is poor and unmanly. Let wishing and working go together.

When He Has a Headache She Tries to Make Everything Quiet and Comfortable for Him. And What Thanks Does She Get? Ah, the Neighbors Can Tell You How He Carries On.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

"YOU have a headache and want to be quiet? Of course you have a headache. Ah, you may be a dissipated brute, Mr. Nagg, and I, your poor, ill-treated wife, may put up with it in silence, but nature will not be trifled with. Nature will revolt. And so, Mr. Nagg, you suffer this morning for your indulgences last night."

"Mother there knows how we waited and waited for you last night. But I will not say a word to you! I will not find any fault. I am not one of those kind of women that jaw! jaw! jaw! at a man.

"What good does it do? No, I will sit in silence, as mother there can testify and try to smile although my heart is breaking."

"But I won't stand it, Mr. Nagg! Look at your state today. Your face is the color of ashes, your lips are blue and your headache and throat."

"But are you thankful that you have a quiet home to rest in and recuperate after your orgies?"

"The first time you were ever out in six years, you say? Well, what made you go out? You knew mother was here to visit me and wanted to remonstrate with you about how harshly you treat me. Why didn't you come home, eh? You don't say a word; you only groan!"

"No, mother, don't say a word to him. He is suffering now; it is his. Sorry. No matter how he treats me I will stand by him. I have too much pride to let any one know what I suffer, or how he treats me. I would die before I would open my lips about it. I told Mrs. Giddings and Mrs. Terrellinger one day in the presence of Mrs. Gladney what I had to stand, and Mrs. Gladney said I was a fool to bear it in silence.

"Mother there knows how we waited and waited for you last night. But I will not say a word to you! I will not find any fault. I am not one of those kind of women that jaw! jaw! jaw! at a man.

"Mother, do not let him scare you by his black looks. I may be his slave, but tell him what you think of him. I am too mild and meek for him, and if only my poor poppa was alive he would show you. Father was all for peace and quiet, but if any body said a word to him he would fly into a murderous rage, and one time he chased poor mamma out of the house with an ax. He was a fool of a forgiving disposition and held no spite."

"He never sat and scowled and groaned. Papa was always playful and merry and made our home happy. But you, look at you! Groan! That's right, groan! Groan at poor momma and me because we are trying to keep the house quiet for you, although you do not deserve it."

"How can I stop the cat running around? I can't help it if does make you dizzy. If you had not dissipated you would not be dizzy."

"Just because my mother comes to visit me you stay home with a sick headache just to prevent us going out. We were going downtown shopping today. Mother can only stay a few days with us—ah, you have stopped groaning! You smile. I stay home to help him about his awful fits of last night."

"How can I stop the cat running around? I can't help it if does make you dizzy. If you had not dissipated you would not be dizzy."

"All men are selfish brutes. Do you ever have a headache when I do? Do you ever take a headache? Do you sit by me and talk pleasantly with me to try to make me forget my suffering? No, you do not! You are a brute, a mean, low, selfish brute."

WASHING DAY BY DAY.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—This government supports and nourishes two trusts. One is the Guide Trust at the capitol, which is as great a monopoly in its way as the Standard Oil Co. The other, a new one, is a trust of notaries public, which octopus waxes fat in the postoffice department.

This latest monster was born of the law which makes it imperative for all clerks who take sick leave to present an affidavit showing they were really sick and not malingering. There are a dozen notaries in the department who take these acknowledgments. The fee was 25 cents.

Then some enterprising notary came up with the idea of charging 25 cents a day to the bookkeeper or to a na飗e western buyer that owing to the established customs of the censorious world she can't go out to lunch with him. This 25 cent week might profitably be paid by double the money to the furnished room in which he has to stay housebound.

But ordinary workers could not afford it. But that is it to either of them if his wife attends the day downtown and her latchkey precedes or follows her by a scant interval of 15 minutes?

To double the family income is very fine, but to do it at the expense of the home—for there can be no home without a woman's occupancy—is less commendable.

If a woman possesses artistic, musical or literary ability which commands an income she may continue to exercise it after marriage without detriment to her home life. But ordinarily all her time and thought and energy are needed in the four walls which she has chosen shall confine her life.

Very often she would rather be out in the world making the family $15 or twenty-five, but it is seldom that the American husband would prefer to have her do it.

Interest in his case. They studied it carefully. They decided that he was not suffering from hydrophobia at all. A hot discussion ensued, but the new doctor had the best of it, and Toomey, who was occasionally courageous, heard enough to convince him that he was not as sick as he seemed.

In little while the dog began to look at the glassy surface of water. His convulsions ceased. He quit barking like a dog and talked like a sane man. He got up. He left the hospital. He is as well as ever.

This would all be most satisfactory to everybody except, perhaps, the medical scientists who first diagnosed his case, were not for one thing. The dog was shot. He was a good dog, too, and meant no harm when he hit Toomey. It was simply the result of a misunderstanding, and much Toomey's fault as the dog's. But when the doctors said that Toomey had hydrophobia it was thought best that the dog should die; he is dead; but this is only one of the many cases in which a dog has got the worst of it, owing to man's ignorance or superstitious fear, or interest in his case. They studied it carefully. They decided that he was not suffering from hydrophobia at all. A hot discussion ensued, but the new doctor had the best of it, and Toomey, who was occasionally courageous, heard enough to convince him that he was not as sick as he seemed.

But when the doctors said that Toomey had hydrophobia it was thought best that the dog should die; he is dead; but this is only one of the many cases in which a dog has got the worst of it, owing to man's ignorance or superstitious fear, or interest in his case. They studied it carefully. They decided that he was not suffering from hydrophobia at all. A hot discussion ensued, but the new doctor had the best of it, and Toomey, who was occasionally courageous, heard enough to convince him that he was not as sick as he seemed.

In little while the dog began to look at the glassy surface of water. His convulsions ceased. He quit barking like a dog and talked like a sane man. He got up. He left the hospital. He is as well as ever.

This would all be most satisfactory to everybody except, perhaps, the medical

RACING SEASON OPENS AT FAIR GROUNDS AND UNION TRACK

NICHOLS MAY GO IN AGAINST THE PIRATES

National League Season Opens in St. Louis Today With Cardinals and Pittsburg Pitted—Both Teams Are In Form.

The Pirates and the Cardinals will open the National League season in St. Louis at League Park this afternoon. Game will be called at 3:30 p.m. The team will line up this evening in the first of a series of three games, and Managers Nichols and Clarke are both confident that the percentage figures will write a .666 behind their clubs Monday morning.

The Pittsburgh team arrived in St. Louis Wednesday morning and with the Cardinals attended the opening of the American League series at Sportsman's Park yesterday afternoon. The club is in full strength and all of the men seem to be perfectly trained.

"The Cardinals certainly seem to be a good aggregation this year," said Clarke, Thursday. "I was astonished to see the way they were batting in the spring against the Browns. Of course, they cannot hope to do nearly that well when the weather gets warmer and the pitchers are not in line, but there are no misgivings as to what they have been doing some pretty unusual slugging."

The Pittsburgh players say that he had not decided who would pitch in the opening game, but that the choice would almost certainly fall on Phillips. Clarke would like to see Beaumont in center and Schrein in right.

Nichols stated that probably either Taylor or himself will open the ball. Phillips is working well and Nichols will probably send him to the firing line. Following is the probable lineup and batting order of the two teams this afternoon:

	St. Louis	Pittsburgh
Beaumont cf.
Farnell 2b.
Leach 3b.
Wagner ss.
Hartman 1b.
Schrein rf.

SATURDAY'S GAMES ARE FIRST CONFLICTING DATES.

Philadelphia 8, Washington 3. WASHINGTON, April 15.—Philadelphia and Washington opened the American League season on the latter's new grounds yesterday. The game was a hard-fought one which pitched for the locals were little erratic. The game was called at the end of the ninth inning on account of darkness. Attendance, 644.

The big league baseball season opened yesterday with defeat for St. Louis. The Detroit Tigers beat the local American leaguers by a score of 7 to 2 in a game that was featured by much hitting and some warlike fielding.

George Mullin, the young star of the Detroit pitching staff, and the storm of wonder that followed his debut, has had a two-bagger out to the right field fence his first time up and later got a single. Mullin played a fine game at center field and made some good catches in center field besides getting three hits out of four times up.

Mullin was back in the short field for the Browns and got around in something like his old form, but his lack of practice showed in his failure to get down the ground scored in the second and seventh. Mullin was a little wild at times and forced in a run in the seventh which was the last on balls to Jones with the bases full.

Detroit. 7; St. Louis 2. ST. LOUIS, April 15.—The Browns defeated the Tigers yesterday. The Goethals' team lost by hitting Young's slants all over the field in the first few innings. Attendance, 10,000.

BASEBALL CARDINALS AND PITTSBURG PIRATES PLAY AT LEAGUE PARK PUGILISM O'BRIEN KNOCKED OUT SULLIVAN IN THIRD ROUND SPORTS

PONY UP FOR THE PONIES!

REFEREE SHARPE AND PROF. CLARK ANALYZE THE FIGHT

Experts Agree That Twin Sullivan Had No Possible Chance Against Jack O'Brien, Who Knocked Out His Opponent in the Third Round.

Harry S. Sharpe, official referee of the West End Club, and Prof. William Clark, the "Belfast Chicken," present to the readers of the Post-Dispatch their impressions of the fight between Philadelphia Jack O'Brien and Jack ("Twin") Sullivan at the West End Club Thursday night. Both accounts of the fight were written exclusively for the Post-Dispatch.

BY HARRY S. SHARPE,
Referee of the West End Club. Written Exclusively for the Post-Dispatch.

The fight between Jack O'Brien and "Twin" Sullivan demonstrated that "dope" in the fighting game counts for little between men of equal weight and ring experience.

Certainly if Hugo Kelly fought O'Brien a draw and Sullivan beat Kelly in the decisive order, as appears to have done, it did not happen.

Clark last week, it does not figure that O'Brien should dispose of Sullivan in three rounds.

And he is a grandly built fighter. O'Brien is tall and strong, weighs 165 pounds, and is heavy enough to support himself and always careful, however, to avoid Sullivan's dangerous right hook.

The fight was of short duration and but little can be said of it, but that O'Brien outclassed Sullivan cannot be denied.

The first round was fairly even, with Sullivan eager to mix it, but falling short when trying to land his famous right hook.

In the second round O'Brien had solved his problem of getting a hold on Sullivan's right hook, and when Sullivan fell again, he was unable to get up.

The Philadelphia fighter would feint a right cross for the jaw, but instead of letting it go all the way would drop his right hand and then bring his left hand up to clinch.

The men broke freely and no blow of consequence was landed in the first round.

In the third round O'Brien sent his right straight across, and it landed flush upon Sullivan's jaw. Then Twin clinched at Jack's right, and when Jack tried to break away, Twin put another straight left on Twin's nose.

The men broke freely and again O'Brien sent his right across, and when Jack tried to lead, O'Brien would drop his right hand and clinch again.

Then Jack jabbed him on the mug and then jabbed again, and when Jack tried to clinch again, Twin put another straight left on his nose.

POST-DISPATCH DAILY RECORD OF DOINGS IN MARKET AND FINANCIAL WORLD

VERY NARROW RANGE WITH ERIE A FEATURE

Lack of Outside Interest Was Noted, But Bull Tips on Erie Made That Stock Active and Gaining a Point During the Day.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, April 15.—The market showed but little life at the opening this morning. Initial prices were practically unchanged and dealings were in small lots. London showed prices close to yesterday's finish and had only a moderate amount of orders here for execution. Consols were 1½ lower, for both money and the account.

The almost entire lack of public interest in the market is telling, and the spurs of activity that the pools and cliques form are short-lived. Commission business is again practically nothing.

The market continues to report poor earnings and growingly short-time notes is still the order of the day. The sale of $1,000,000 of two-year 4½ per cent notes of the Bank of Boston was reported as unchanged, and Norfolk & Western is also issuing $2,000,000 of equipment notes. The market seems to be in a low ebb.

There was no improvement in the volume of business during the first half hour.

The market had a decidedly weak tendency for a time, but the fact developed that the general market has increased to a considerable extent since the market opened, showing Gold engagements have been made that expected, and the volume of business on the Stock Exchange would naturally increase. Liquidation of the British Government cost 1½ points and the preferred 2½. United States Rubber preferred, Tennessee Coal and Iron, Standard Oil, and Chicago Great Western preferred, all at 100.50, and other issues of that class were less active than yesterday.

Admiralty stock showed no signs of improvement.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS-MORNING SESSION.

A comparative inactive stock this issue was one of the most active of the day. The close was on moderate dealings and showed the last prices extremely irregular, but not far from the opening with a range during the day that was narrow.

The opening prices and changes were as follows: C. & P. 4½ advance 1¾; 7½ decline ¾; Baltimore & Ohio 7½; decline ¼; Brooklyn 5½; advance ½; Erie 1½; Rock Island 2½; unchanged; St. Paul 14½; Rock Island 2½; unchanged; Union Pacific 6½ unchanged; Union Pacific 6½ unchanged; Steel common 1½; unchanged; Steel preferred 9½; unchanged; Steel preferred 9½.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Opening prices of stocks generally showed no decided change today from last night's quotations.

The volume of business was very light, and the feature of the market was the transfer of 200 shares of Wabash preferred at 88½ and 88½ with 28½ last night. Considered sold.

Spirited selling followed intervals of inaction, and the market remained favorable showing Gold engagements have been made that expected, and the volume of business on the Stock Exchange would naturally increase. Liquidation of the British Government cost 1½ points and the preferred 2½. United States Rubber preferred, Tennessee Coal and Iron, Standard Oil, and Chicago Great Western preferred, all at 100.50, and other issues of that class were less active than yesterday.

Admiralty stock showed no signs of improvement.

at the moment to encourage demand and to relieve market. Futures are firm. Contract stocks are small. Corn in store is good out of condition.

Snow, the reporter, says: Talk of lateness of season being overdone. Spring wheat seeding in southern Minnesota and Iowa is already well along. Good progress.

It is a little slow in North Dakota, but no one need worry for two weeks yet.

India shipped this week 1,250,000 bu wheat, this somewhat larger than the 1,168,000 bu of last week and exceeding corresponding week last year by 284,000 bu. The prospects are for over 1,000,000 bu wheat this week, this week and another increase in amount abroad.

Modern Miller, out of control. Weather this week will be unusually cold, retarding growth of the wheat plant. No change in general condition of winter wheat in the West, but in the Ohio Valley, north of the Ohio river, there are numerous complaints of back-weather. Weather conditions are bad, with conditions and poor prospects. South also in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. Reports from Oklahoma less encouraging. Winter wheat in the West, from both coasts of the United States and Canada, as reported by Bradstreet's, were 1,210,000 bu for the week ending April 10, up 2,278,000 bu for corresponding week last year, and 4,118,000 bu for two years ago. Since July 1 there are 119,000,000 bu, compared with 118,000,000 bu same period last year, and 106,508,000 bu two years ago.

Corn clearances for week ended April 10, 1903, 800,000 bu, up 218,000 bu from two years ago. Since July 1 they are 1,210,000 bu, up 218,000 bu from two years ago, and 1,235,000 three years ago. Since July 1 they are 1,210,000 bu, up 218,000 bu from two years ago. Traders who had bought on the spot market, and who had been holding for short periods, have been offered a good deal of grain, which has been sold at 8½ last week, and others less than 8½ last week.

 FOURTH AND PINE STS.IMPROVED PROPERTY FOR SALE
 14 Words 20c

Why pay rent when you can own your home? This question has probably been in your mind before. We have to show you how you can own your home for less than rent. We have a plan whereby we can place you in possession of your own home for $1,000 down payment and only $100 a month thereafter.

To Whom It May Concern—This certifies that I am the holder of a property contract in the name of the Equitable Home Association, Inc., on twenty-year term. That in February, 1903, the said association purchased for me, under my direction, a house at 1223 Chestnut, and gave me possession of it. I am paying each month on my contract $5.36, which is a sum equivalent to $1,000 down payment plus interest on its purchase price, or it may be considered as rent.

I am sending you my contract and it is giving me a home much cheaper and to a far greater advantage to me than I could get in any other way. I believe the plan of the Equitable Home Association is good one and I am saving myself a great deal of money and that the men in charge of it are reliable and understand their business. Very respectfully yours,

N. G. 639 Northup Av., Kansas City, Kan.

We have the original copy of the above (and hundreds of others) at our office open for inspection, or you can write for the particulars direct. If you want to know more about the plan, or, out of courtesy, that you inclose a stamp for reply.

IMPERIAL PALACE AT SEOUL DESTROYED BY FIRE.

PARIS, April 15, 1:10 p. m.—A cable report from the foreign office here says that the imperial palace at Seoul, Korea, was completely destroyed by fire last night. The fire began in the evening and lasted throughout the night. Only the ruins of the palace remain. The emperor and his family were escaping to a nearby refuge. The report does not mention any loss of life, nor does it give the cause of the fire, but the political interest in the Korean capital leads to fears that the destruction of the palace was the work of the rebellious element.

The Memoirs of a Baby

By JOSEPHINE DASKAM

Never before has the dignified title of "Memoirs" graced so funny a book as this. All the incidents of a lively youngster's babyhood are amusingly portrayed and "modern, scientific" methods of raising children cleverly satirized. The book will irresistibly appeal to every one capable of a hearty laugh—especially to men.

With sixty very funny pictures by F. V. Cory.

Miss Margaret McCabe and Mr. Ben Fullerton were married Monday morning at St. Louis. The bride is a daughter of the Sacred Heart, Rev. Father James J. McCabe, an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony.

A reception to the relatives only was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary J. McCabe, 2215 St. Louis avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald attended the bride, and Miss Ada McDonald assisted the bride, and Messrs. S. Fullerton, Julie Luckett, H. L. LeFevre, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Huert attended the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton departed on the noon train for the East, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. J. Long of 1224 Hogan street entertained the members of the Coffee Club on Wednesday. Mrs. C. Ferguson will entertain at the next meeting. Those present were Mrs. Ferguson, Reardon, Scamell, Kelly, Tracy, and Upton.

Mr. Maline's children's fancy dress party will be at the Savoy on Saturday afternoon on the stage of the Odeon at 2 o'clock.

There will be 61 children on the stage in costumes of all nations and will dance national dances. The stage is to be transformed into a garden by the lavish decoration of foliage, shrubbery and flowers. The following are the names of the girls who will be on the stage: Mrs. George W. Niedringhaus, Mrs. Walker Hill, Mrs. D. C. Nugent, Mrs. A. Clifford, Mrs. A. Farlin, Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. Conine H. Moore, Mrs. F. E. Nelsen, Mrs. W. K. Bixby, Mrs. P. H. Skipwith, Mrs. G. V. R. Michin.

Miss Annie Troll of 3224 Shaw avenue entertained friends Sunday afternoon at her home in honor of her birthday. After supper there was a social gathering.

Prizes were won by Mrs. John Oubrakka, Miss Minnie Writer, Miss Lotta Boldschwirg and Dr. W. H. Nichols. The girls took a record with bows and streamers of ribbon at one corner. These the guests carried off as souvenirs. The participants were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dussell, Joe Dial, Barney Bertold, John Oubrakka, Adolph Troll, Michael J. Murphy, Mrs. M. J. Murphy, Marie Martin, Emma Ploehn, Lola Schmidt, Lotta Boldschwirg, Messrs. Harry Troll and Dr. Hall.

The members of the Union Club have sent out cards for Monday evening, when they will have a social gathering.

Said the card: "Said the club with a strong cast and chorus of 50 voices made up of club members. The performance will begin promptly at 8:30."

Financial Troubles Cause Suicide.

AKRON, O., April 15.—H. T. Wilson, chairman of the board of a public safety company and a prominent attorney in this city, committed suicide yesterday morning. Mr. Wilson was a stockholder in the Akron Savings Bank, which recently failed, and it is supposed that financial troubles caused him to take his life.

Pastor Calvin's Reception.

Rev. F. N. Calvin, pastor of Compton Place Methodist church, will have a reception at his home Sunday evening, April 16, to the members and friends of the congregation.

Miss Annie Troll, Mrs. E. Calvin, who have recently returned from Europe, where they devoted two years in the study of music, will assist their parents in entertaining the guests.
